It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Dennis Welsh. He passed away at the age of 76 years in the Rocky Mountain House hospital June 14, 2018, due to complications with ALS. He was the second son born to George and Myrtle Welsh in Olds Alberta on June 6, 1942.

He grew up on a farm in the Bowden area. Moved to Jasper Alberta where he met Theresa, his wife of 50 years. Jasper was a big part of his life, this is where he raised his family.

Dennis worked 36 years for parks Canada, working his way up to barn boss. In the middle of this he owned and operated the stables at the Jasper Park Lodge. They moved to Rocky Mountain House when he retired. This is where he raised horses until shortly before he passed away.

He leaves behind to mourn his loss his wife Theresa, daughters; Chantelle (Mike) Brown: Victoria and Kellsie Brown and Elli (Lucas) Koskinen: Troy and Owen Koskinen.

He will be fondly missed and greatly remembered.
